

Lloyd Brown
August 23, 1920
February 11, 2010

Lloyd "Bud" Brown passed away peacefully in his sleep early Thursday, February 11th, 2010 at his home in Lakewood, California, of natural causes. He began life in Lafayette, Colorado on August 23, 1920. He lived a full and happy life. He served in the Navy during WWII and was a 64-year member of the American Legion. He was active in his hometown community serving as a Scoutmaster and was a member of the Town Council Louisville, Colorado. He was a proud employee of Continental Airlines for over 40 years and retired as Manager of Power Plant Overhaul at LAX. He loved the friends he made at CAL and read the "Golden Tale" faithfully. In retirement he became a "bear maker" and created over 200 toys for children. These are the facts about Bud. The essence of "Bud" will be the laughter he brought to all people and situations, the love and high regard others have for him, and the values of honesty and fairness he gave and expected in return. He was a loving husband for 60 years to his wife Josephine E. Brown who preceded him in death in 2002 and to his wife of the past 5 years, Catherine Brown. His parents, Elizabeth and Damon Brown, as well as his brother Earl Brown, Jr. preceded him in death. He is survived by his sister, Margaret Stevens of Louisville, Colorado, his son, Larry Brown of Colorado Springs, Colorado, his daughter Connie Scutari of Short Hills, New Jersey, his two grandchildren, Laura Brown Pappalardo and Eric Brown, and one great granddaughter, Jessica Brown. He also loved his many friends and will be missed and remembered fondly every day.
